TASK 2

You have read about a boy in a blog who successfully changed his life.

From School Bully Target to Teen Blogger

Joshua Weissman isn't your typical 17-year-old boy. A few years ago, overweight and bullied in school, he finally decided to take his health seriously, but packaged diet meals and quick fixes didn't help. Instead, he started cooking — and in the process changed his life.

*Now 100 pounds lighter, Joshua has won the respect of the classmates who once teased him and even inspired some of the teenage boys around him to eat a little better. He is also a talented food photographer and runs the paleo-focused food blog Slim Palate.*

Joshua, then and now

Write a comment to Joshua, in which you

- say what you think of Joshua's story,
- tell how common you think school bullying is in Hungary,
- give an example from your experience,
- give advice on what bullied students should do.

Write your comment in 100-120 words.

Begin it like this:
